

c.

4. If I were to ask those responsible for you, would they say you have a strong will or that you tend to resist their decisions?

5. Was there ever a time when your will was broken and you eagerly obeyed authority from that time on?

6. Do you believe that God is bigger than those who are responsible for you and is even able to work through their mistakes to develop Christ's character within you? Describe your understanding of how this works.

7. Would you be willing to totally submit your will to God and prove it by obeying the human authorities He has put in your life?

Prayer to Submit My Will

Lord, I realize that You have put me under authority in order to reveal wrong attitudes in me and replace them with the character of your Son.

Forgive me for resisting Your work in my life. Right now I do submit my will to You and purpose to illustrate it by obeying those You have put over my life. Amen.

8. What specific attitudes or actions would your parents tell you to change if they sincerely believed you wanted to know and follow their wishes? (Ask them)

Taken from Institute in Basic Youth Conflicts 1976, 1982